Beat away those end of summer blues with a warm, sunny and relaxing week away in Portugal.

We will be heading to the Algarve, a region in the south of the country where there are golden beaches and lots of fun attractions to see and do.

Depending on the needs of the group we will choose a hotel or a private villa where you can spend the week relaxing by the pool, reading on the beach and taking in the beautiful views of the Atlantic Ocean and picturesque coastline.

There will be plenty of time for souvenir shopping inbetween some fun and exciting day trips to local attractions.

We will travel to Portugal by plane from a London airport. Please note that we cannot provide any travel support to and from the airport.

This holiday is ideal for those of you who want a laid back week in the sun!

This is the perfect trip for anyone who loves Disney!

We will be travelling on the Eurostar from London St Pancras straight to Disneyland Paris, where we will stay in one of the Disney hotels for 4 nights.

We will have dinner and breakfast at the hotel and spend three full days in the Disney Parks and the Disney Village, where we can enjoy the rides, meet some of the characters and watch the parades and spectacular evening light show.

This holiday is suitable for all abilities, however it will consist of early starts and late evenings with lots of walking around the parks and taking in all that Disney has to offer!

The boring, but important bits...
